

Galway Preservation Society-Nov. 2nd -Doors open at 6:45 followed at 7:00 by this month's program, "Nicholas Veeder, the Liberty Flag and Other Interesting People & Facts of the American Revolution" presented by Michael Diana, Director of Education for the Schenectady County Historical Society. Nicholas Veeder, a Revolutionary War Veteran of Schenectady, owned a Liberty flag, one of several known revolutionary flags. Veeder carefully preserved the flag and carried it in early Independence Day parades. Veeder died at age 100 in 1862 and was photographed around this time outside his Scotia home in his Revolutionary War uniform, with revolutionary firearms and the Liberty flag.

The meeting will be held at the Galway Town Hall, 5910 Sacandaga Road, Galway, 12074. Our programs are always open to the public, free of charge. If you choose, annual family or household memberships are available for $10 per year. Please join us for some fun and to learn more about our history.
