Galway Preservation Society-Dec.7th-Doors open at 6:45 followed by this month's program, "Reflections: Choosing Sides in Albany County 1775-1776" presented by Jim Richmond, volunteer local historian at Brookside Museum and Co-Producer of Forgotten Crossroads, a series of videos focusing on the history and heritage of individual communities in Saratoga County. Jim has also published War on the Middleline, about the local British raid of 1780.

Jim's presentation will focus on 10 residents who chose to either join the Revolution, become Loyalists, or remain neutral. Until 1791, Saratoga County was part of Albany County.

The meeting will be held at the Galway Town Hall, 5910 Sacandaga Road, Galway, 12074. Our programs are always open to the public, free of charge. If you choose, annual family or household memberships are available for $10 per year. Please join us for some fun and to learn more about our history.
